At Redondo extensive improvements have been made and the famous Seventh Regiment Band has been engaged for the season which insures the best of music at this delightful resort by the "Sounding Sea." This is the resort of moss, agate and shell hunters. Fishing from the wharves is always good. The Summer Chalet at Long Beach will be fully up to the standard, while Santa Monica will have its usual crowd of pleasure seekers. Los Angeles, the busy metropolis of Southern California, will be alive with visitors who make this their headquarters for side trips around the "Kite-Shaped Track," the beaches, Mt. WHAT has become of the old

IF CORBETT really enters politics, then Gov. Roosevelt will have an ally in his advocacy of the strenuous life.

IF DREAMS are inherited, does it show that a man who has the nightmare is descended from a hostler ancestor?

THE State of Oregon had an election this week and the Republicans captured nearly everything in sight. The indications are pointing more strongly each day to the election of McKinley this fall.

"If I were a Filipino I would fight until I was gray," declared the Hon. Richard F. Pettigrew to an audience of his constituents. If Mr. Pettigrew were a Filipino he would simply scamper across the rice fields until he was out of breath.

DISPATCHES from South Africa tell us that the war is practically over. The result was never doubtful, it was simply a question of how long the Boers could resist the immense armies which England brought up against them.

POSTOFFICE money orders, instead of being payable only at the office named on the order, will in the future be cashed at any first or second class postoffice. When an order is presented for payment all that will be necessary will be proper identification. The new plan is now in operation.

The killing of an enraged bull with a pitchfork by a Pennsylvania girl of 15, to save her mother's life, is more interesting than the many feminine victories over burglars. It is absurd to suppose that a sex that is capable of such heroism needs the protection of men. Do not men need its protection?

This country has little to fear from the bubonic plague, unless it shall turn out that the negro race, like the Asiatic, is especially liable to it. But, nevertheless, Secretary Gage's somewhat startling order, authorizing the Surgeon-General to absolutely forbid all travel by "Asiatics or other races peculiarly subject to the disease," if he thinks it necessary, is a well taken precaution.

W. J. BRYAN, it is said, has received information which leads him to conclude that the vote of Kentucky will be thrown out next fall if the Goebel iniquity is not repealed before the election, and he therefore has stirred Joe Blackburn up to advocate repeal. Probably Bryan's information is correct. The House that would count the vote of any state that had been cast under such a law as the Goebel law, must care nothing for the real will of the people.

KENTUCKY may be congratulated upon her narrow escape from civil war. In her quiet and constitutional settlement of her dangerous gubernatorial muddle, the country has conspicuous evidence of the adaptability of our republican institutions for every emergency, however grave. The keystone of our governmental structure is obedience to the mandate of the constitutional authority. It has saved Kentucky from disgraceful depths.

THE Kaiser should not presume on the good nature of the United States. If he should go on with his meat bill, he is likely to hear something over here. Of course we will not retaliate, but there are more ways of killing a cat than choking it to death with cream, all the same. For years Germany has been excluding our products on the ground that they were impure or unwholesome. Now, for the past year, there has been a law on the statute books authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to exclude impure foreign products, and it is quite possible that the Secretary will see fit to use it against Germany.

THE Cuban postoffice employees, whose salaries have been cut, complain that they should have larger pay in Cuba than in the United States, because they must maintain their families at home. No doubt there is something in this, but not so much as would seem. The sooner Americans get out of all but the highest offices in Cuba and turn them over to people who live there, the better both for Cuba and the United States. The chief evil of colonial government is found in the existence of office holders who go to the colonies simply for the salaries, with no intention of making their homes there and no stake in the

"Edgar, dear!" she used to call, When wedded life was new; But now she's very apt to bawl When he's wanted: "Say, you!"

Small in size and great in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills that cleanse the liver and bowels. They do not gripe.

"I hear a lot about prosperity," he said grumblingly, "but I don't see much of it."
 "You don't?"
 "Now, why a fellow has to work for what he gets just the same as he always did, doesn't he?"

Fire at Fort Wingate.
 At about 8 o'clock Wednesday night the Post Exchange building and the canteen at Fort Wingate were destroyed by fire. The fire was caused by the explosion of a can of gasoline. A large quantity of provisions stowed in the canteen, was saved from destruction by the soldiers of the Ninth cavalry. The buildings were of wood, and owing to the scarcity of water, nothing could be done to check the flames. The total damage will amount to several hundred dollars.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get round to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends—F. A. BARCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by F. J. Watron, Druggist.

A Wonderful Insecticide.
 Customer—That was a splendid insect powder you sold me the other day, Mr. Oilman.
 Mr. Oilman (with justifiable pride)—Yes; I think it pretty good—the best in the trade.

Customer—I'll take a couple of pounds of it, please.
 Oilman—Two pounds!
 Customer—Yes, please. I gave the quarter of a pound that I bought before to a black beetle, and it made him so ill that I think if I keep up the treatment for about a week I may manage to kill him.

Starvation never yet cured dyspepsia. Persons with indigestion are already half starved. They need plenty of wholesome food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat so the body can be nourished while the worn out organs are being reconstructed. It is the only preparation that will instantly relieve and completely cure all stomach troubles. Try it if you are suffering from indigestion. It will certainly do you good. F. J. Watron.

Sympathetic.
 Mrs. Enpeck—I understand the young lady Mr. Meeker is going to marry speaks three or four different languages.
 Enpeck—Poor Meeker. He doesn't deserve such a fate.

Its Principal Use.
 A little boy, writing a composition on the zebra, what requested to describe the animal and to mention what it is used for. After deep reflection he wrote: "The zebra is like a horse only striped. It is chiefly used to illustrate the letter Z."

Unless food is digested quickly it will ferment and irritate the stomach. After each meal take a teaspoonful of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and will allow you to eat all you need of what you like. It never fails to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. It is pleasant to take. F. J. Watron.

Smelled Kerosene.
 Husband (sniffing)—Seems to me I smell kerosene.

Wife—Yes; by the way, my dear, you must go to the intelligence office and get a new girl. You can ride down with the undertaker.
